

The lyrics for Peaceful Rest are a poem that was found under the pillow of a fatally wounded soldier in Port Royal, South Carolina during the American Civil War.

Peaceful Rest

Frank DiGiacomo

Edited by Erwin Vrooman

Very slowly and steadily, with sincerity ♩=50

Voice

mp

I lay — me down to sleep, with lit - tle thought or

Piano

mp

Voice

molto rubato a tempo

care, whe - ther my wak - ing find me here or — there. A

Piano

Voice

con rubato

bow-ing bur - den'd head, that on - ly asks to rest, un - ques - tion-ing, up - on a

pp mp

Piano